The Nets reportedly will send forward Allen Crabbe, the No. 17 pick of the 2019 NBA Draft, and a lottery-protected 2020 first-round pick to the Hawks in exchange for forward Taurean Prince and a 2021 second-round pick. A source confirmed the deal to The Associated Press on condition of anonymity because the trade cannot become official until July 6. The deal would clear an additional $18 million in cap space for the Nets to use in pursuit of free agents this summer. The team, which already had enough space to accommodate a single max player, will now have $46 million in cap space, according to Wojnarowski.
